Maroon Al Ali: "Flag Day" is an opportunity to invoke meanings of pride in the UAE's achievements

Published: 03 Nov 2020

His Excellency Marwan Ahmed Al Ali, Director General of the Department of Finance in Ajman, said: "The UAE flag is a symbol of our country that we are proud of, and celebrating it is an opportunity...

His Excellency Marwan Ahmed Al Ali, Director General of the Department of Finance in Ajman, said: "The UAE flag is a symbol of our country that we are proud of, and celebrating it is an opportunity for every citizen and resident on the land of the Emirates to recall all the meanings of pride in the nation's march full of achievements and successes, and to work hard and sincerely for the continuation of this march. blessed and sustainable development.

Marwan Al Ali said - in a statement on the occasion of the Flag Day, which falls on November 3 of each year - that this occasion, dear to the hearts of Emiratis, is a renewal of the pledge to preserve the achievements and good reputation of our country in light of the insightful vision of the wise leadership, ambitions that have no ceiling, and arms. A loyal Emirati woman who has proven her competence in various fields with unrelenting determination.

In this context, he stressed that the UAE flag will remain, as we have always known, fluttering high in all parts of the earth, reminding the world of the white hands of the Emirates and its lofty message in spreading the values of love and peace all over the world.