Ajman, 01 February 2023 : In a notable move to enhance collaboration and knowledge exchange, the Ajman Department of Finance and Ajman University have entered into a memorandum of understanding (MoU), which was signed by His Excellency Marwan Al Ali, Director General of the DoF, and His Excellency Dr Karim Al-Saghir, Director of Ajman University.

The MoU seeks to solidify the strategic alliance between the two entities by promoting collaborative activities, conferences, and research initiatives in finance and accounting. This agreement highlights a mutual commitment to deepening cooperative ties and fostering the exchange of knowledge and expertise.

A pivotal component of this collaboration involves offering training opportunities to Ajman University students within the government's financial sector. This initiative is geared towards equipping students with the demands of the workforce, ensuring they gain the essential skills and knowledge.

Following the MoU signing, His Excellency Marwan Al Ali underscored its importance as part of the Department's broader strategy. He stressed the need for enhanced coordination and cooperation among government departments, in line with the wise leadership's directives and supporting the vision of the Emirate of Ajman. Al Ali further expressed the DoF's dedication to nurturing the academic sector, equipping students with vital skills to heighten their marketability in the job arena.

In response, His Excellency Dr. Karim Al-Saghir, Director of Ajman University, expressed his happiness at signing this agreement, saying: "This cooperation opens up broad horizons for our students, not only at the academic level, but also at the level of readiness for the labor market, and this comes from our commitment to providing the best training and knowledge opportunities from all over the world." "By organizing seminars and workshops characterized by quality and diversity to ensure that our students are provided with the necessary practical and theoretical skills. This partnership will have a pivotal role in shaping a promising professional future for our youth."

Dr. Karim Al-Saghir continued his speech, stressing the importance of this step: "The partnership between higher education institutions and government sectors represents a basic foundation for building bridges of knowledge and practical communication. By exchanging experiences and unifying efforts, we will work together to achieve our aspirations in preparing a qualified generation that possesses the necessary tools to be able to Making a real difference in our cognitive and economic society."

The partnership between the Ajman Department of Finance and Ajman University exemplifies a mutual dedication to growth and development. By integrating academic insights with hands-on experience, both entities seek to significantly contribute to the development of Ajman's financial human resources.
