Ajman Finance Director General: Mohamed bin Zayed is a high-ranking statesman

Published: 15 May 2022

Marwan Ahmed Al Ali, Director General of the Finance Department of the Government of Ajman, extended his warmest congratulations to His Highness Sheikh Mohammed bin Zayed Al Nahyan, expressing his…

Marwan Ahmed Al Ali, Director General of the Finance Department of the Government of Ajman, extended his warmest congratulations to His Highness Sheikh Mohammed bin Zayed Al Nahyan, expressing his confidence that he is the best successor to the best predecessor in preserving the legacy of the founding father and Sheikh Khalifa bin Zayed, may God bless their souls, and to complete their glorious journey. Loyalty and love for the Emirates.. He pointed out that the values of governance promoted by Sheikh Zayed bin Sultan and Sheikh Khalifa bin Zayed are the epitome of a unique experience in which the historical, civilizational and global dimension, but they have creatively added to these values a large part of the qualities of their leadership and inspirational personality that combined originality Contemporaryism and global humanism and the consolidation of the values of union, cooperation and solidarity, in addition to their focus on human education and work, concern for his health and stability, and building bridges of peace and love with societies and peoples in a homeland where the meanings of moderation and tolerance are manifested, and the upholding of human value and the preservation of his dignity. He added: "Words fall short and we are unable to express everything that goes on in our thoughts towards an exceptional leader, a statesman of high caliber and a father whose heart overflows with sympathy for the sons of the country, loyalty to his people and keenness to place our country in the ranks of developed countries... and under the leadership of His Highness Sheikh Mohammed bin Zayed the President of the State, we express our commitment to support his insightful vision and follow in his footsteps, and we embark on a new historical path full of achievements and hopes.