

“Sharjah Chamber” enhances the skills of employees of the Department of Finance in Ajman in computer leadership

Published: 15 Sep 2021

The Sharjah Chamber of Commerce and Industry, represented by the Sharjah Training and Development Center, organized a training program on the International Computer Driving License (ICDL) for a group...

The Sharjah Chamber of Commerce and Industry, represented by the Sharjah Training and Development Center, organized a training program on the International Computer Driving License (ICDL) for a group of employees of the Finance Department in the Government of Ajman. Institutions and companies in various training fields, with the aim of enhancing job skills and providing the best services to their customers. The training program, which was held over three days via video communication technology, was presented by lecturer Fathi Abdel Aziz, where the participants learned about the basic concepts related to information and communication technology and computers, as well as working effectively through the use of icons and windows, and how to adjust the main operating system settings and use the help features. In addition to enabling participants to apply different formats to documents, and learn about good practices in choosing appropriate formatting options, as well as many skills associated with driving a computer. Amal Abdullah Al Ali, director of the Sharjah Training and Development Center, confirmed that the Sharjah Chamber, represented by the Sharjah Training and Development Center, is working to provide many training programs directed to employees of government agencies and the business community, which provide topics that meet their requirements and provide support to them to help them overcome all the challenges they face, from During the study and meeting the training and qualification needs, as well as the preparation and implementation of plans, programs, courses and workshops, short and long, which would contribute to creating an environment that stimulates creativity and enhance the ability of employees to excel and excel in customer service, in addition to raising employees' awareness of all outstanding institutional performance programs, to increase Performance and productivity rates as well as help them to speed up the achievement in a way that provides access to an active work environment and thus provide high-quality services to the auditors. The participants in the training program praised the importance of the outputs they obtained in upgrading their work, praising the efforts of the Chamber and the Center in providing many courses and workshops in all areas that would serve all employees to perform their tasks.