His Excellency Marwan Ahmed Al Ali, Director General of the Department of Finance in Ajman, affirmed that Emirati women are a strategic and pivotal partner in foreseeing the future and contributing to the achievements of the UAE over the past decades.

Al Ali said - in a statement on the occasion of Emirati Women's Day, which falls on August 28 of each year - that Emirati women have achieved several achievements in various fields and various vital sectors in the country with unlimited support from the rational leadership.

He stressed that Emirati women have the right to be proud of the achievements they have made today, making them an essential partner in the development process. They have become a role model at the regional and global levels, not only for their qualitative achievements, but for the continuous development in the nature of the role they play in society.
