"Ajman Economic Department" links its digital services with the "smart payment gateway"

Published: 16 Dec 2019

Sheikh Ahmed bin Humaid Al Nuaimi, Chairman of the Department of Economic Development in Ajman, announced the linking of the department's digital services to the Ajman Smart Payment Gateway. Sheikh...

Sheikh Ahmed bin Humaid Al Nuaimi, Chairman of the Department of Economic Development in Ajman, announced the linking of the department's digital services to the Ajman Smart Payment Gateway. Sheikh Ahmed bin Humaid Al Nuaimi said that the Ajman smart payment gateway represents an important step in the Emirate of Ajman's march towards achieving the digital transformation plan, as the emirate formulated unprecedented strategies that enabled it to achieve great successes that contributed mainly to the development of the efficiency of government services, and the concerted efforts of government departments in Ajman to achieve Its ultimate goal is to place the emirate at the forefront of business competitiveness, in line with the directives and aspirations of the wise leadership and the UAE Centennial 11. Our vision is to build a sustainable diversified economy based on knowledge and innovation, and we value the tireless efforts made by the Ajman Department of Finance in launching the Ajman Smart Payment Gateway that meets all our needs safely and effectively, thus saving time and effort and ensuring ease of providing services to the public.