Ajman Finance showcases its services in support of smart transformation

Published: 04 Oct 2019

The Ajman Department of Finance, during its participation in the GITEX Technology Week 2019, to be held from 6 to 10 October at the Dubai World Trade Center, will showcase its latest smart financial...

The Ajman Department of Finance, during its participation in the GITEX Technology Week 2019, to be held from 6 to 10 October at the Dubai World Trade Center, will showcase its latest smart financial services, which keep pace with the smart transformation path pursued by the Emirate of Ajman to build a green economy and achieve sustainable development that enhances the well-being of the emirate. society in accordance with Ajman vision 2021. The department is participating in the thirty-ninth session of the largest event for the information and communication technology sector, under the umbrella of the Ajman government, to introduce its strategy based on investing energies and harnessing capabilities to support a culture of innovation and to build a pioneering government financial system that contributes to achieving sustainable development for the Emirate of Ajman and enhance the competitiveness of the state. Marwan Ahmed Al Ali, Director General of the Department, confirmed that the "GITEX Technology Week" provides a strategic platform to review Ajman's ambitious financial plans aimed at providing smart and innovative financial services that represent an important addition to the government's orientation towards enabling the Emirate of Ajman to achieve smart transformation, stressing the Department's commitment to moving forward. On this path, by launching a set of services based on the use of artificial intelligence and transaction automation. He added that the department is keen to participate in GITEX to showcase its smart services and technical applications, which it has developed to enhance the concept of digital transformation and enrich the customers' experience, in addition to being keen to see the latest developments.