Ajman Finance enhances tax awareness with innovative initiatives

Published: 10 Nov 2019

Marwan Ahmed Al Ali, Director General of the Ajman Finance Department, stressed the keenness to enhance efforts during the remainder of 2019 in spreading tax awareness in the emirate, noting that the…

Marwan Ahmed Al Ali, Director General of the Ajman Finance Department, stressed the keenness to enhance efforts during the remainder of 2019 in spreading tax awareness in the emirate, noting that the department has developed a set of innovative specialized initiatives aimed at supporting and enhancing tax awareness. Al Ali said that the tax affairs office in the department implemented an awareness plan for the tax group entities of the government of Ajman, which included awareness visits to many entities, and 3 awareness workshops for all governmental and independent agencies within the emirate, in cooperation with the Federal Tax Authority, Chamber of Commerce and Industry, and City University College, during which Making a comprehensive awareness of value added tax and clarifications issued by the authority and responding to tax inquiries and other tax matters Ajman and Umm the important.